Drifting With My Lady

Words by Keiichiro Kodama
& San Motegi
Music by Keiichiro Kodama
Performed by HUSHBYRD

In 1974, San, Keiji, and Kei set out on the Asia Highway and one of their biggest goals was to visit "Bandi Amir", a lake in the desert of northern Afghanistan. This song was inspired when we were sitting on a rock wall on the shore of the lake at night, looking up the twinkling stars that seemed to be falling from the sky. It was really beautiful. That view still remains behind my eyelids.

1974年にSan, Keiji, Keiの3人で行った"アジアハイウェイ踏破"はアフガニスタン北部の砂漠にある湖「Bandi Amir」を訪れることが最大の目標の一つだった。湖岸の岩壁に登って夜空からこぼれ落ちてきそうな満天の星を眺めながら作った曲。本当に綺麗だった。その景色は今でも瞼の裏に残っている。

Drifting with my Lady, all night long
Stars are calling, stars are twinkling
Drifting with my baby, all night long
Moon is shining, and smiling

Sailing in the night with full of wind on hand
Drifting in the night while stars were falling from the sky

Oh, Bandi Amir,
Yes, the Lake of Heaven

I should be strong, should be tall to hold you in my arm
I could be warm, could be wise, to hear your voice
We are drifting on

Drifting with my Lady, all day long
Lake keeps calling, Lake is twinkling
Drifting with my baby, all day long
Sun is shining, and smiling

Sailing in the light with full of wind on hand Drifting in the light, where stars were falling from the sky

Oh, Bandi Amir,
Yes, the Lake of Heaven

We should be strong, should be tall to hold you in my arms
We could be warm, could be wise, to hear your voice
We are drifting on
